Hyoumankind's New Zealand founder Steph Wyborn has spent ten years and over 20 prototypes 'reinventing the pillow'. After realising her physicality as well as her appearance was being affected by how she was sleeping, she bought every quality pillow she could get her head down on. None of them delivered on their promises of better sleep. After collaborating with healthcare professionals, beauty experts and foam manufacturers, the genius of her pillows is contributing to the sleep and relaxation of thousands of hyoumankinders.

We've meticulously refined every detail of our luxurious On-the-go Silk Pillow to deliver the ultimate beauty sleep.
